

CHICO MINI-GOLD CUP FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT SATURDAY, MARCH 12

Q: What is the “Chico Mini-Gold Cup” event?

A: The World of Outlaws Sprint Car Series, in association with Silver Dollar Speedway, is excited to be renewing the spring-time tradition of the Chico Mini-Gold Cup event at the action-packed .250-mile oval at the Silver Dollar Fairgrounds. The World of Outlaws will run one night only – Saturday, March 12 – when 2010 Champion Jason Meyers makes his first start in his home state to take on the superstars of “The Greatest Show On Dirt” including 20-time champion Steve Kinser, Joey Saldana (driving for Kasey Kahne Red Bull Racing), four-time champion Donny Schatz (driving for Tony Stewart Racing), Jason Sides, Paul McMahan, Craig Dollansky, Kraig Kinser, Chad Kemenah, Lucas Wolfe, Cody Darrah, Danny Lasoski, Ben Gregg and all of the winged-warriors.

Silver Dollar Speedway has added the “John Padjen Classic” on Friday, March 11 for the USAC Western Classic Sprint Cars and the USAC/BCRA Midgets. This addition to the Mini-Gold Cup will give fans a taste of what is in store for September’s Gold Cup Race of Champions.

Q: Where does it take place?

A: The legendary Silver Dollar Speedway, an action-packed .250-mile oval known for its high-speeds located at the Silver Dollar Fairgrounds, 2357 Fair Street, Chico, CA 95928. The Business Office Phone is: (530) 350-7275. Race Day/Track Phone: (530) 891-6535.

Q: Is reserved seating available?

A: Yes! For the World of Outlaws event, the top 10 rows (Rows K through T) of the main covered grandstand are currently designated as reserved seats, as are the very top rows of the Turn 1 (South) and Turn 4 (North) sections.
